Fantastic Mixed Resi/Commercial Refurbishment Opportunity
4x Bedroom Maisonette and Ground Floor Commercial Unit
Maisonette Benefitting from Generous Rear Extension, Garden and Garage
Located in a Highly Desirable Commercial Trading Parade
Potential Buy & Hold Investment or Split & Sell – Viewing Highly Recommended

LOCATION

The property occupies a prominent location on Queen Street, close to the Town Centre and Newton Abbot Railway Station. This is a main route through central Newton Abbot and the property is located on a highly visible spot, well situated to benefit from the high volumes of passing vehicles and pedestrians. This thriving area of Newton Abbot offers a variety of nearby occupiers including Independent Retailers, Restaurants and Takeaways, Health & Beauty and Office occupiers.

DESCRIPTION

138 Queen Street is a mixed-use property in Newton Abbot Town Centre. The property is arranged as a ground floor commercial unit with a 4-bedroom maisonette spread across ground and first floor.

The commercial unit is currently vacant. This provides an opportunity for a purchaser to either develop the unit or more permanently split the commercial unit from the residential accommodation.

The maisonette is also being sold with vacant possession and offers an exciting refurbishment opportunity. The property is generously sized with a two-storey extension at the rear providing a large living area and master bedroom. The maisonette benefits from a private garden, a garage and access via the rear on Oak Place.

The property will certainly be of interest for those parties looking for a mixed-use investment or a split and sell refurbishment opportunity.
